SOLO - DUO - TRIO - FULL BAND

JENNIFER ALVARADO is a multi-award winning artist and songwriter who is redefining what it means to be a country artist in today's music scene. She recently was named the 2025 WVIU Christian Country Artist of the Year, as well as the 2025 Damien Horne Humanitarian of the Year by the Carolina Country Music Association. Jennifer has become one of the most relentless independent artists in country music, performing over 200 shows a year across the country. She's played legendary venues like The Viper Room, stages all across Nashville, and countless stages across NC, TN, GA, VA, SC, CT, KY, and TX. Her goal? To play all 50 states and bring her music to international audiences. Jennifer's setlist is diverse with cover tunes that will excite any audience along with her celebrated original music.
